6.2.2. The Carrier shall not be responsible for any fault of his personnel and of the Vessel's Crew in cases of damage or loss caused by fire or explosion on board the Vessel or caused by the navigation or management of the Vessel, in the latter case save for damage or loss caused when executing measures which were predominantly taken in the interest of the Goods ("Error in Navigation and Fire Defences").

- (a) by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of the Carriage where the loss or damage occurred ; or

In the event that the Merchant requests the Carrier to deliver the Goods at a port or place other than the Port of Discharge or the Place of Delivery originally designated in this Bill of lading and the Carrier in its absolute discretion agrees to such request, such further Carriage will be undertaken on the basis that the Bill of Lading Terms and Conditions are to apply to such Carriage.

7. GENERAL PROVISIONS

7.1. Sundry Liability Provisions

7.1.1. Hague Rules/Hague-Visby Rules

In the event that suit is brought in a Court other than the Court as provided for in Clause 26 and such Court contrary to Clause 26 accepts jurisdiction, then the Hague- Visby Rules are compulsorily applicable, if this Bill of Lading has been issued in a country where the Hague-Visby Rules are compulsorily applicable the Carrier's liability shall not exceed 2 SDRs per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost or damaged, or SDR 666,67 per shipping unit, or the value of such Goods whichever is lesser. If this Bill of Lading has been issued in a country in which the Hague Rules apply, the Carrier's liability shall not exceed GBP 100 per Package or unit.

7.1.2. US COGSA

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, in the event that suit is brought in a court in the USA and such court, contrary to Clause 26 accepts jurisdiction, then US COGSA shall be compulsorily applicable to this contract of Carriage if this Bill of Lading covers a shipment to or from the USA. The provisions set forth in US COGSA shall also govern before the Goods are loaded on and after they are discharged from the Vessel. The Carrier's maximum liability in respect to the Goods shall not exceed US $ 500 per Package or, where the Goods are not shipped in packages, US $ 500 per customary freight unit unless the nature and value of the Goods has been declared by the Merchant and inserted in writing on page 2 of the Bill of Lading and said Merchant shall have paid the applicable ad valorem freight rate set forth in Carrier's Tariff.

7.1.3. Delay and Consequential loss

Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay or any other cause whatsoever and howsoever caused. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if the Carrier is found liable for delay, liability shall be limited to the freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport. It is hereby agreed that ad valorem arrangements pursuant to clause

7.1.5 shall have no application to any claim for delay.

(a) Unless expressly agreed, the Carrier does not undertake that the Goods shall arrive at the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery at any particular time or to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused by delay.

(b) If notwithstanding the foregoing the Carrier is held responsible for the consequences of any delay, the Carrier's liability is limited to an amount to one time the freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport. The limitation does not apply if it is proved that the delay in delivery resulted from an act or omission of the Carrier himself done with the intent to cause damage, or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.

7.1.4. Package or Shipping Unit Limitation

Where the Hague Rules , the Hague-Visby Rules, or any legislation making such Rules compulsorily applicable (such as COGSA) to this Bill of Lading apply, the Carrier shall not, unless a declared value has been noted in accordance with clause 7.1.5 below, be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods in an amount per Package or Shipping unit in excess of the Package or Shipping unit limitation as laid down by such Rules or legislation.

7.1.5. Ad Valorem: Shipper's declared Value of Package or Shipping Unit

The Merchant agrees that higher compensation than that provided for in this Bill of Lading may not be claimed unless the nature and value of the Goods have been declared by the Merchant prior to the commencement of the Carriage, and inserted on the front of this Bill of Lading in the space provided and extra freight paid on such declared value, if required. In such case, the declared value if embodied in the Bill of Lading shall be the basis for calculating the Carrier's liability (if any), provided that such value shall only be prima facie evidence, but shall not be conclusive evidence of such value and further provided that such declared value does not exceed the true value of the Goods at destination. Any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

7.1.6. Definitions of Package or Shipping Unit and Limitation

(a) A "Package or Shipping Unit" is the largest individual unit of partially or completely covered or contained cargo made up by or for the Shipper which is delivered and entrusted to the Carrier, including palletized units and each container stuffed and sealed by the Shipper or on its behalf, although the Shipper may have furnished a description of the contents of such sealed container on this Bill of Lading.

(b) Where a Container is used to consolidate Goods and such Container is stuffed by the Carrier, the number of Packages or Shipping Units stated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the box provided shall be deemed the number of Packages or Shipping Units for the purpose of any limit of liability per Package or Shipping Unit provided in any international convention or national law relating to the carriage of Goods by sea.

(c) Except as aforesaid the Container shall be considered the Package or Shipping Unit. The words "Shipping Unit" shall mean each physical unit or piece of cargo not shipped in a Package, including articles or things of any description whatsoever except Goods shipped in bulk, and irrespective of the weight or measurement unit employed in calculating freight charges, the limitations applicable thereto shall be the limitation provided in such convention or law which may be applicable, and in no event shall anything herein be shipped construed to be a waiver of limitation as to Goods shipped in bulk.

(d) Where the Hague Rules or Hague-Visby Rules or any legislation making such rules compulsorily applicable (such as COGSA) to this Bill of Lading apply, the Carrier shall not, unless a declared value has been noted, be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods in an amount per Package or Shipping Unit in excess of the Package or Shipping Unit limitation as laid down by such rules or legislation. Such limitation amount according to COGSA is US $ 500, and according to Hague-Visby is 666.67 SDRs per Package or Shipping Unit. If no limitation amount is applicable under such rules or legislation, the limitation shall be US $ 500 per Package or Shipping Unit.

7.1.7. Rust, etc.

It is agreed that superficial rust, oxidations or any like condition due to moisture, is not a condition of damage but is inherent to the nature of the Goods and acknowledgement of receipt of the Goods in apparent good order and condition is not a representation that such conditions of rust, oxidation or the like did not exist on receipt.

7.1.8. Notice of Loss or Damage

The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this Bill of Lading unless notice of loss of, or damage to, the Goods, indicating the general nature of such loss or damage, shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to his representative at the Place of Delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this Bill of Lading or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three (3) consecutive days thereafter.

7.1.9. Time bar

The Carrier shall be discharged of all liability unless suit is brought in the proper forum and written notice thereof received by the Carrier within nine months after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered. In the event that such time period shall be found contrary to any convention or law compulsorily applicable, the period prescribed by such convention or law shall than apply but in that circumstance only.

7.1.10. Scope of Application and exclusions

(a) The rights, defences', limitations and liberties of whatsoever nature provided for in this Bill of Lading shall govern in any action against the Carrier for loss or damage or delay, howsoever occurring and whether the action be founded in contract or in tort.

(b) Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances whatsoever and howsoever arising be liable for direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage or loss of profits, unless it is established that the Carrier himself acted with the intent to cause damage, or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any customs liabilities even if caused by loss of the Goods.

8. MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY

8.6. No Goods which are or may become dangerous, inflammable or damaging or which are or may become liable to damage any property or person whatsoever shall be tendered to the Carrier for Carriage without the Carrier's expressed consent in writing and without the Container or other covering in which the Goods are to be transported and the Goods being distinctly marked on the outside so as to indicate the nature and character of any such articles and so as to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and requirements. If any such articles are delivered to the Carrier without such written consent and marking or if in the opinion of the Carrier the articles are or are liable to become of a dangerous, inflammable or damaging nature, the same may at any time be destroyed, disposed of, abandoned, or rendered harmless without compensation to the Merchant and without prejudice to the Carrier's right to Charges. Whether or not the Merchant was aware of the nature of the Goods, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all claims, losses, damages or expenses arising in consequence of the Carriage of such Goods.

8.7. The Merchant shall be liable for the loss, damage, contamination, soiling, detention or demurrage before, during and after the Carriage of property (including, but not limited to, Containers) of the Carrier or any person or vessel (other than the Merchant) caused by the Merchant or any person acting on his behalf or of which the Merchant is otherwise responsible.

8.8. Any information on the front of this Bill of Lading relating to any invoice, export or import license, documentary credit, insurance certificate, order, contract or like matters is included solely at the request of the Merchant and is not verified by the Carrier. Any such information shall not constitute any declaration of value of the Goods and shall in no way increase Carrier's liability hereunder.

8.9. The Merchant shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against any loss, damage, claim, liability or expense whatsoever arising from any breach of the provisions of this clause 8 or from any cause in connection with the Goods for which the Carrier is not responsible.

9. CONTAINERS

9.1. Goods may be stuffed by the Carrier in or on Containers and Goods may be stuffed with other Goods.

9.2. The Terms and Conditions of this Bill of Lading shall govern the responsibility of the Carrier in connection with arising out of the supply of a Container to the Merchant, whether supplied before or after the Goods are received by the Carrier or delivered to the Merchant.

9.3. If a Container has been stuffed by or on behalf of the Merchant :

9.3.1. The Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods

(a) caused by the manner in which the Container has been stuffed;

(b) caused by the unsuitability of the Goods for Carriage in Containers;

(c) caused by the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container provided that where the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this paragraph shall only apply if the unsuitability or defective condition arose

(a) without any want of due diligence on the part of the Carrier or (b) would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was stuffed;

(d) if the Container is not sealed at the commencement of the Carriage except where the Carrier has agreed to seal the container.

The Merchant undertakes not to tender for transportation any Goods which require temperature control without previously giving written notice (and filling in the box on the front of the Bill of Lading if this Bill of Lading has been prepared by the Merchant or a person acting on his behalf) of their nature and particular temperature range to be maintained and in the case of a temperature controlled Container stuffed by or on behalf of the Merchant further undertakes that the Container has been properly pre-cooled, that the Goods have been properly stuffed in the Container and that its thermostatic controls have been properly set by the Merchant before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier.

If the above requirements are not complied with the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods caused by such non-compliance.

10.2. The Merchant should note that refrigerated Containers are not designed :

10.2.1. to freeze down cargo which has not been presented for stuffing at or below its designated carrying temperature and the Carrier shall not be responsible for the consequences of cargo being presented at a higher temperature than that required for the Carriage; nor

10.2.2. to monitor and control humidity levels, albeit a setting facility exists, in that humidity is influenced by many external factors and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of any intended level of humidity inside any Container.

10.3. The term ' apparent good order and condition' when used in this Bill of Lading with reference to Goods which require refrigeration, ventilation or other specialized attention does not mean that the Goods when received were verified by the Carrier as being at the carrying temperature, humidity level or other condition designated by the Merchant.

10.4. With regard to refrigerated cargoes, the Carrier shall be deemed to have fulfilled his obligations under the Contract of Carriage and shall have no liability whatsoever if such refrigerated Goods are carried in a range of plus minus 2,5 degrees centigrade in regard to any temperature indicated on the front of this Bill of Lading.

10.5. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods arising from defects, derangement, breakdown, stoppage of the temperature controlling machinery, plant, insulation or any apparatus of the Container, provided that the Carrier shall before or at the beginning of the Carriage exercise due diligence to maintain the refrigerated Container in an efficient state.

11. INSPECTION AND DISPOSITION OF GOODS

and/or incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or to continue the Carriage or to store the same ashore or afloat under cover or in the open, at any place, which storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all additional expenses resulting therefrom.

11.3. The Carrier is not responsible for any damage or loss to Container or its contents resulting from inspection by customs or other authorities and Merchant shall be responsible for any expenses, costs, fines, or penalties incurred as a result of such inspection or otherwise.

The Carrier shall nevertheless be entitled to full Freight on the Goods received for the Carriage, and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs incurred by reason of the abandonment of the Goods. If the Carrier elects to use an alternative route or to suspend the Carriage under this Clause, this shall not prejudice its right to subsequently abandon the Carriage.

12.4. The liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease on the delivery or other disposition of the Goods in accordance with the orders or recommendations given by any government or authority or any person purporting to act as or on behalf of such government or authority.
